ARC Broward Board of Directors Welcomes Andre Parke

Sunrise, FL, April 21, 2008—A prominent leader from the Broward law community has a new association with ARC Broward. Andre Parke of Doumar, Allsworth, Laystrom, Voigt, Wachs, Mac Iver & Adair, LLP has been elected to the ARC Broward Board of Directors.

As an attorney at Doumar, Allsworth et al, Mr. Parke concentrates his practice in zoning, environmental, land use, and governmental law. Prior to joining Doumar, Allsworth, Laystrom et al, Mr. Parke was an Assistant City Attorney with the Town of Davie Florida from 2002 - 2005.

Mr. Parke represents developers and property owners seeking developmental entitlements for their development projects. Mr. Parke also represents developers and property owners with issues related to code violations on their properties.

Mr. Parke has represented clients before several local governments and administrative agencies within the State of Florida. Because of Mr. Parke's background in local government as a City Attorney and his work in the private sector, he is able to advise clients in a wide range of land use and governmental permitting issues.

Mr. Parke has experience in preparing various documents involving municipalities and administrative agencies. He has also served as legal advisor to several municipal boards and participated in code enforcement litigation as a prosecuting attorney.

ARC Broward is a private, not-for-profit organization providing supports and assistance primarily to children and adults with mental retardation, autism, Down's syndrome, cerebral palsy, and other developmental disabilities. Incorporated in 1956 and celebrating 50 years serving the community, ARC Broward provides a continuum of supports to more than 1,200 children and adults with disabilities and employs a caring team of more than 450 health-care, educational, and other professionals.
