ARC Broward Welcomes New Board Member

Sunrise, FL, July 6, 2009— Jason Roberts of Miller Construction Company, an emerging leader in the Broward business community, has been elected to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of ARC Broward, one of the community's premier non profit organizations that provides services to children and adults with developmental disabilities and those with a variety of other challenges. Mr. Roberts was introduced to ARC Broward through Leadership Broward's Emerge Broward program.

About ARC Broward — ARC Broward is a nationally accredited, not-for-profit organization providing supports and assistance primarily to children and adults with, autism, Down's syndrome, cerebral palsy, various intellectual and other disadvantages. Incorporated in 1956 and celebrating 52 years serving the community, ARC Broward provides a continuum of supports to more than 1,200 children and adults and employs a caring team of more than 450 health-care, educational, and other professionals. Visit www.arcbroward.com for additional information.

Jason Roberts earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Florida in May 2008. He has been a Project Engineer at Miller Construction Company since 2008 and has managed preconstruction and estimating services for multi-million dollar commercial projects.

Mr. Roberts became a Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design Accredited Professional (LEED AP) in November 2008 and has the distinction of being a national finalist in the Associated General Contractors student competition. He has previous non-profit involvement through his construction volunteer efforts with Rebuild Gainesville, a home repair organization dedicated to addressing substandard housing needs in North Central Florida.

He joins ARC Broward Board Members Joan Hinden, Ron Jacobs, JD Andre Parke, Esq. and Rafael Soltero, as well as officers: Steve Pattison, Chair, William Laystrom, III, Esq., 2nd Vice Chair, Gary Arenson, CPA, Treasurer, Pam Sands, Secretary, and Dennis Haas, Esq., President/CEO.
