Empowering young adults to live more independently, creatively, and confidently.

Bridging the Gap Between Transition and Independence.

What comes after transition services? We're here to provide the answer.

The Academy of Arts & Recreation is a specialized program for young adults ages 22–26, designed to bridge the critical post-transition gap with meaningful and engaging life and work skill-building experiences. This program is intentionally designed to support young adults who have aged out of traditional school-based services, offering structure, growth, and opportunity in a socially enriching environment.
